Sunday 29 June 2025

2nd Sunday after Trinity

Collect

Lord, you have taught us
that all our doings without love are nothing
worth:
send your Holy Spirit
and pour into our hearts that most excellent
gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead
before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Readings

Old Testament	1 Kings 19. 15 - 16, 19 - end
New Testament	Galatians 5. 1,13 - 25
Gospel	Luke 9. 51 - end

Post Communion

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth
until our joy is complete in heaven,
and we share in the eternal banquet
with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Next Week Readings 6 July 2025

St Mary Patronal

Joint Parish Service

Old Testament	Zephaniah 3. 14 - 18
New Testament	Roamns 12. 9 - 16
Gospel	Luke 1. 39 - 56

Message

from Anthony Moorthoti

The cost and freedom of following Jesus:

Bible readings for this week (1 Kings, Galatians, and Luke) all ask the same thing: what does it actually mean to follow Jesus?

When God called a farmer named Elisha, he did something mad. He killed all his cattle and burned his farming tools to cook a huge barbecue for everyone in his village. Why? Because he was making sure he couldn't change his mind and go back to his old life when things got hard.

Paul writes to some Christians about real freedom. Not the "do what you want" freedom that everyone goes on about these days, but freedom from the stuff that actually messes us up - feeling guilty all the time, being ashamed, and trying desperately to make everyone like us. Proper freedom means we can love people and help them because we want to, not because someone's making us.

Jesus meets three blokes who want to follow him, but they all want get-out clauses and backup plans. His point is simple: you can't follow God half-heartedly.

All three stories show us the same thing: following Jesus means letting go of some things, but what we get back is miles better. We're not swapping something good for something rubbish - we're trading wobbly, temporary stuff for solid gold that lasts forever.
